LIFE AFTER COLLEGE: International Service
Wednesday, 3/28, 5:30 p.m., Grogan 128
Are you looking for opportunities after graduation? Have you considered post-graduate service abroad? Learn about different kinds of programs and experiences of post-graduate service! Come and hear reflections from former Peace Corps Volunteers who served in locations such as Kazakhstan, Vietnam and Nepal. You will have a chance to ask questions and talk about what international service involves. Food and drinks will be provided.
Hosted by: Dr. Tad Skotnicki, Assistant Professor of Sociology

A TASTE OF AFRICA
Thursday, 4/5, 6-7:30 p.m., Shaw Residence Hall: Tillman-Smart Room
Come and explore Africa’s cultural diversity and be treated to a fun-filled, flavorful evening featuring music, stories and home-cooked tasty traditional cuisines from various countries in Africa.
Hosted by: Dr. Rachel Boit, Assistant Professor of Human Development & Family Studies, Jasmine Orr (RA, Weil Residence Hall) and the African Student Union (ASU).

U.S. AND THEM: Global Perspectives on the U.S.
Wednesday, 4/11, 7-8 p.m., North Spencer Parlor
Panel of international faculty and students share their views on the United States before and after arrival.
Hosted by: Prof. Sarah Carrig, Spanish; and Prof. William Makolle, French