AFTER ANTI-ASIAN INCIDENTS, COLLEGES SEEK TO REASSURE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Colleges are concerned that the rise in anti-Asian discrimination and violence could make international students, 70 percent of whom are from Asian countries, think twice about coming to the United States. Read this article to learn what institutions are doing to provide international student outreach and support.

SOJO REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1-When was a time you were corrected because something you said or did was problematic or hurt someone?
2-How did you react when you heard this?
3-What did you do moving forward?
4-What have you found to be the most effective ways to have these difficult conversations?

Take time to reflect.

SOJO CINEMA FEATURING:

Trial of the Chicago Seven

The film is based on the infamous 1969 trial of seven defendants charged by the federal government with conspiracy and more, arising from the countercultural protests in Chicago at the 1968 Democratic National Convention. The trial transfixed the nation and sparked a conversation about mayhem intended to undermine the U.S. government. One can draw many comparisons to conversations on policing, protesting, and an unfair justice system still present today. Watch on Netflix!
