Thank you for your interest in UNCG’S First Service Pageant. This Pageant is meant to give the students of UNCG a unique opportunity to engage in a new initiative that will be hopefully grow to become a UNCG tradition- and it will all start with you! The goal of this event is to promote unity among UNCG students, UNCG campus partners and the greater Greensboro community through a committed service initiative. Through participating in this pageant, you will develop professional skills and ample networking opportunities, but most importantly, you will be able to give back to the community, and have fun while doing it! So, what makes you eligible to participate in this pageant? You must have a 2.5 cumulative GPA, and have at least 1 active semester left at the university (i.e. must be present for the Fall 2017 semester). That's it! IMPORTANT: This is NOT a beauty pageant, where you will be judged based upon your looks. We are a diverse campus, who prides itself on the inclusiveness we have within the surrounding Greensboro community, and we want our contestants to reflect that! If you’re ready to make a change in your community and enjoy every step of the way while doing it, this pageant is for you!

Any other time commitments that may limit your participation should be noted in the respective spaces of your application. You must be able to come to one weekly meeting (will meet more often towards the actual pageant), participate in fundraising initiatives with your respective hall councils, as well as communicate with your chosen service organization.
